HAPPINESS IS 4-H

By Frank H. Sweet
Extension Agent

Sixty-eight 4-H members presented demonstrations or illustrated talks in last Saturday's 4-H program. We're real proud of all these 4-H'ers and the good job that they did last week. The winners in each category will represent Appomattox County in an area program to be held at Appomattox Middle School on May 19.

The District 4-H Meats program will be held in Powhatan this coming Saturday for Senior and Junior 4-H members. Representing Appomattox at this program will be Senior members: Steve Conner, Richard Conner, and Bonnie Drinkard; and Junior Members: Lonnie Evans, Leroy Morgan, Jay Kerr, Mike Davis and Ernest Humbles. These 4-H'ers have been practicing judging and identifying meats since early winter.

Glen McClenny, Kenneth McClenny, Lisa Coleman, Dean Jamerson, Dale Clowdis and Glen Clowdis will be participating in the Southside Junior Livestock Show this Saturday in Farmville. The show will begin at 8 a.m. at the Five County Fairgrounds and conclude with a sale of market hogs and fat steers at 7 p.m. Glen and Kenneth will be showing beef heifers while Lisa, Dean, Dale and Glen Clowdis will show market hogs. A number of Appomattox merchants have supported the show. Included among these are Farmers National Bank, J. E. Sears, Appomattox Truck and Tractor, Coleman and Sons, Inc., Appomattox Agri Services, J. A. Nolen and Associates, and WTTX.

It's a real pleasure to announce that Americas Federal Savings and Loan Association will sponsor the 1979 4-H Share-the-Fun program. A committee will develop an awards program for this year's Share-the-Fun activities.

* * *

Over 30 4-H's have already signed up to attend 4-H Camp this summer. 4-H'ers may turn in applications at their regular meeting or may mail them to Appomattox Extension Office, Box 488, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

Chair Seat Weaving Workshop

Appomattox Extension Homemakers have been learning the useful art of chair seat weaving.

Shown at a recent workshop, busy at work and proudly displaying their craft are Mrs. Ruth Smith, Pauline Reeve, Laura McClenny, Frances Dyess, Joan Ranson and Faye Franklin.

Because of the interest shown in chair seat weaving, a second workshop was scheduled for May 2, 10 a.m. - 12 noon and 1 p.m. - 3 p.m. in the Extension office.

Home-Ec Presented Mock Wedding

On Thursday, May 3, at 2:00 o'clock, students enrolled in Consumer and Homemaking at Appomattox County High School participated in a "Mock Wedding" to complete a unit on planning a wedding.

Girls from the specialized Marriage and The Family class made all of the arrangements that included writing the wedding ceremony, writing and sending invitations, a shower for the prospective bride and a complete ceremony with formal attire and a full reception.

Shown above are those students who participated in the ceremony. They were bride, Mary Catherine Simpson; groom, Frankie Tanner; minister, Ronnie Abernathy; best man, David Stratton; maid of honor, Shelby Dunnam; bridesmaids, Rebecca Moss, Wanda Mosley, Penny Elliott, Pam Taylor, Mary Dyess, and Laurie McLean; ushers, Andrew Kelso, Bud Rosser, Joe Fraley, David Harvey, and Andrew Spencer; mother of the bride, Cheryl Elliott; father of the bride, Bob Dunnam; and mother of the groom, Susan Phelps. Other students participated in serving cake and punch, decorating and receiving guests.

ALABAMA Baptist Church

And I looked and Lo a Lamb stood on the Mount Zion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand having his Father's name written in their foreheads. Revelation 14:1.

The prayer service was lead by Miss Pearl Moore, Miss Ruth Jackson. Everyone joined in the service. Pulpit guest was Rev. Wyatt T. Venable. The scripture was taken from Psalm 27. Rev. Curtis Elliott text were taken from Psalm 19. Theme: The Love of The Lord. A large crowd turned out to the service. Visiting deacons from Mt. Lyle and White Oak Group. We were glad to see so many new faces.

Our visitors from the different churches: White Oak Grove, Zion Baptist, Mt. Lyle, Mt. Zion, Red House, Triumph, Sulphur Spring, Mt. Pleasant and Gravel Hill.

The music was furnished by the Senior and Junior Choir combined.

And a song by the choir under direction of Mrs. Joyce Walker.

On our sick list, our prayers goes out to Dea. Jessie King and Mrs. Mary Culley, hoping they will be well and soon return home again.

We are praying for the sick and shut in everywhere. May God Bless them.

The Appreciation Service for the pastor Rev. and Mrs. Curtis Elliott will be held Mother's Day night at the Alabamba Baptist Church and the time is 7 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially invited. The guest minister will be Rev. Wyatt T. Venable, pastor of New Stone Baptist Church and Hickory Grove of Halifax. The music will be the Hickory Grove Choir. The MC as usual Rev. Howard Flood, Pamplin.

Come out and witness to our Pastor Appreciation Service.

Prayers go out to the sick wherever they might be.

Hoping Sis Mary Culley and Dea. Jessie King will soon be home again out of the hospital.

Mt. Airy News

Beautiful thoughts are those that bear on the wings of love a silent prayer that thy peace may ever abide with thee.

"Wherefore Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches and hearken to all my words."

Scripture - Rev. Wendell Johnson; prayer, Deacon John Garrett; hymn, "Only Believe" after which the Rev. Pryor preached a beautiful sermon. His subject was "Call and I Will Answer." The house choir rendered beautiful music with Mrs. Alma Pryor at the piano. Offering - Deacon Charles Booker, Deacon Edward McCoy, Deacon Milton Berry, visiting Deacons, John Garrett, Deacon Austin.

Thanks to the many visitors and friends for coming out and sharing in the service. Sunday night's guest was Rev. Woodrow Fitch who preached a wonderful sermon. His subject was "Listen While God Speaks" and it was enjoyed by all. The Second Mineral Springs Beginners Choir rendered beautiful music with Brother Dennis McCray at the piano. Ministers present were: Rev. Deb Christian, Rev. Ernest Humbles, Rev. Robert McCray, Rev. Wendell Johnson, and Rev. R. Q. Lawing; also Rev. Boyd Christian.

The offering was taken by Deacon Leon Lawing - Deacon Job Humbles, Deacon Edward McCoy, Deacon Herman Megginson.

Thank you again, our many friends and visitors for coming out and sharing in the service.

Zion Baptist

Regular preaching service was held at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a.m. with Rev. Andrew Hodge spoke on. "You Don't Have To Go To The Hog Pen." The Senior Choir rendered beautiful music with Mr. Howard Allen at the piano. The male chorus of Zion sung several selections after the morning service following the spring rally. Mrs. Jane Byrd captain for the ladies. Deacon Frank Johnson, captain for the men's. The rally was a success. The captains thanks each and every one for giving so well.

You are cordially invited to the Mother's Day program at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a.m. with special singing on the program.

The male chorus of the Zion Baptist Church will serve Mother's Day Breakfast at the church from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. Our sick is improving slowly. Miss Mary C. Brown is receiving special treatment at a Richmond hospital. Hoping her a speedy recovery. Hoping everyone will have a nice Mother's Day. Happy Mother's Day to all mothers.

Magnolia Franklin is so pleased that her girls are taking turns coming down to help while she is recuperating. She is still on the mend. Mattie is home this week. We sympathize with the Franklin family at the passing of their cousin, Mr. Richard Brown retired principal of Bluefield State College. Funeral will be held in Bluefield W. Virginia at 1 p.m. Wednesday, May 9.

We are hoping them a safe trip.

Sandy has returned to New York after staying home with her family for a while.

Rich Guill

Qualifies For Regional Play

Rich Guill, a member of the Raider Golf Team, qualified for regional play with a score of 82 in the Seminole District Tournament on the tough Ivy Hill Golf course.

Although the team did not qualify. Rich will compete in individual play in his bid to advance to state competition.

A freshman at ACHS, Guil has had a good season for Coach Jerry Robinson. In addition to his performance at Ivy Hill, he twice tied for Medalist Honors with a 76 at Falling River Country Club and a 79 at Winton Country Club in Clifford.

"I feel like this is my third year on the team", said Rich, "because I traveled with the team two years before I wsas eligible."

Rich has also gained experience in tournament play by qualifying and playing in the State Junior Amateur and The Insurance Youth Classic Tournaments. He will be entring both again this year.

Rich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Guill.

The Raiders had 9 wins and 4 losses for the season with one loss to AAA E. C. Glass. Others on the team include, Ronnie Robinson, Reed Johnson, Jimmy Roach, Captain; Tim Tolley, Steve Mayberry, T. W. Ballowe, Ernie Chenault, and Matt Ranson.

F.R.C.C. Tourney Plans Near Completion

The golf activities committee at Falling River Country Club will meet tonight (Thursday) to make final plans for the third annual Robert E. Lee Invitational set for May 19 and 20.

Although there are several other tournaments that week end in the area, response to the local invitational has been good, however more support is needed from FRCC members. If a member has not registered or has misplaced his invitation he should contact either Ord Guill, Floyd Fleshman or Warren Moser today.

Jerry Conner will be defending his title with a host of FRCC members expected to make it tough including James Paulette, Doug Marshall, Dick Guill, Floyd Williams, Bob McFaden and Doug Mitchell.

Some out of town guests that have entered include Wayne Proffitt and Gary Howard from Lynchburg, Bill Carter from Halifax, David Harper from Farmville and Mike Atkinson from Hurt.

A few Saturday afternoon spots are still open, but hurry.

Teams Needed For Softball Tourney

More teams are needed for the slow pitch softball tournament to be sponsored by the ACHS Athletic Booster Club.

The tournament will be played June 29, 30 and July 1 in Appomattox.

Trophies will be awarded the top four (4) teams and to the Most Valuable Player.

The fund raising project will feature special events, prizes, and lots of food, including old fashioned brunswick stew.

Joe Foxwell and Helen Anderson are co-chairpersons; and Stuart Justus is heading the tournament committee.

Appomattox 21 Brookville 7

Karen Johnson had three hits, a single, triple and home run, in four at bats, scored three and batted in four runs in leading the Raiderettes over Brookville 21 to 7 in Seminole District softball last week.

Each starting player had at least one hit as Appomattox ran its record to 10 wins and 3 losses for the season.

Cental Va. Golf Association Plans Tournament

The Central Virginia Golf Association has scheduled its annual tournament for June 15, 16, and 17. All proceeds from the tournament, which is sponsored by John Sims, go to the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation. Winton professional Billy Mc Bride is Tournament Director; Jim Eanes is Chairman of the event, and Ray Truxall is Co-Chairman.

This year's tournament has been shortened to three days to allow more golfers to participate. Play will be at Cedar Hills on Friday, Ivy Hills on Saturday, and finish at Winton Country Club on Sunday. There will be a cocktail party and dance at Oakwood Country Club on Friday night for participants and guests.

The tournament is open to all male amateur golfers who are high school seniors as of June 1979 or older. Golfers living in the Central Virginia counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Buckingham, Campbell, Nelson, Pittsylvania and Prince Edward and the city of Lynchburg are eligible to participate. Applicants do not have to be club members, but handicap verification by a club professionsi or official is requested.

Past tournament winners include defending champion David Anthony, Jim Alexander, Art Costan, Pete Dalton, Jimmy Davidson, Jimmy Forehand, David Howard, Kent LaRocque, and Frank Ore.

The field has been expanded from 128 to 144 golfers. Applications will be taken on a first-come basis, and qualifying rounds will be played on Friday and Saturday. The field will be divided into eight flights for the final round on Sunday. Applications will be mailed to last year's participants and will also be available at the local pro shops.

Altavista 6 Appomattox 4

The Raiderettes couldn't get their offense in gear and the defense committed eight errors as Altavista handed the Appomattox girls their third loss of the season last week Altavista scored four runs in the fourth inning and held the Raiderettes to one run and two hits over the last three innings to pull out the victory 6 to 4.
